We are looking for Chaperones to assist our Red Deer Royals! Thank you for applying! This is a very busy, but rewarding week for the members, staff and chaperones!

The duties of the Chaperones would include (but not be limited to) the following:

- You will be assigned a group of members that you will be responsible for the entire trip. Your own child/children will not be in your group.
- You will be responsible to ensure that all members in your group are present and accounted for each time required, to ensure nobody is left behind.
- Be part of a team that will help create a positive and successful experience for everyone.
- Keep itinerary information and your chaperone group/emergency information organized, with you and accessible at all times. Duties to help with snack, first aid, hydration, equipment will be required of all chaperones participating on the trip.
- Every chaperone must have a current (within 2 years) police check, vulnerable sector check and intervention check on file with the Chaperone Coordinators. This information must be given to the Chaperone Coordinator by early June. Thank you!

Why are you interested in being a Chaperone on the Red Deer Royals 2017 Stampede Week?

What band duties could you provide assistance with?

(Please check off all that you feel you could assist with. Thank you)
