

Ten "mom & dad" reasons:

- Provides a wholesome weekly social event in the company of many new friends who share similar interests and goals.
- You can claim the Royals registration fee as a tax deduction under the federal government's Arts or Fitness tax credit.
- Diverse musical experiences - parade, field show, & concert.
- Wonderful opportunities for leadership training and development. We have a very strong leadership program.
- Affordable - even less than the cost of private music lessons.
- Helps your kid get more active and involved in life. Fun, fitness, focus & friendship every Wednesday evening.
- Your child will be a part of an outstanding internationally recognized marching show band - a member of our team.
- Develops a strong sense of team spirit & a feeling of belonging. Everyone has an important contribution to make.
- Your child not only develops him/herself as a person, but makes a valuable contribution to our community.
- An excellent supplement to your child's school music program, with quality instruction in show band and modern marching.

Ten "kid" reasons:

- You might be able to count Royals rehearsals as "practice time" for your school band practice card.
- You get to wear three different uniforms - concert jacket, marching uniform, and travel jacket.
- You get to "strut your stuff" down the streets in places like Calgary, Banff, Sylvan Lake, Rocky Mountain House, Red Deer, Banff & Edmonton as well as in countries around the world.
- Helps you gain business, accounting, entrepreneurial skills through a variety of fundraising activities.
- Because of parades, you have a great excuse to get out of doing yard work and other chores at home some Saturdays in June.
- You get to show skeptics it actually is actually possible to play musically and move around at the same time.
- Promotes strong family relationships and harmony with your siblings by getting you out of the house more often.
- A great contemporary marching uniform.
- Travel the world - at a reasonable cost! (Europe . . . Australia . . . Italy . . .)
- Keeps you out on the streets, where you belong.
